1926-1927 (#1)

Founder / Organizer

Prof. H. (Hessel) Duncan Hall
(Syracuse University, School of Citizenship and Public Affairs)

1927 Conference

April 29-30, 1927
Syracuse University
Slocum Hall
Syracuse, New York
Model Assembly of the League of Nations

70+ Students
11 Colleges and Universities from Upstate / Northern New York State

Alfred College: Australia
Buffalo University: Great Britain
Colgate University: France
Cornell University: China, Germany, and Japan
Elmira College: Czecho-Slovakia
Hamilton College: Belgium
Hobart College: Salvadore and Persia
St. Lawrence University: Sweden
Syracuse University: Irish Free State, Poland, India, and Argentine
University of Rochester: Italy
Wells College: Chili and Peru

- This was the first U.S. intercollegiate Model Assembly of the League of Nations simulation to meet under that name.
- Some of the student delegates attending were from outside the U.S.

- Delegations were asked to prepare reports on one or more of the nine topics before they arrived since time was too short to do so during the conference. Six reports and one resolution were listed in the program.
- Syracuse University covered all expenses except for delegate travelling expenses.

Abbreviations Key:

AAUN = American Association for the United Nations
CCUN = Collegiate Council for the United Nations
CDC = Chef de Cabinet
CIRUNA = Committee of Int'l. Relations & United Nations Affairs
COS = Chief of Staff
FA = Faculty Advisor
DG = Director-General
DSG = Deputy Secretary-General
Exec. Dir. = Executive Director
LNA = League of Nations Association
NHSMUN = National High School Model United Nations
SG = Secretary-General

Governing:

For the most part, from 1927-1967, our conferences (with name changes over the years) were organized by a Continuation Committee in conjunction with a Mid-Atlantic college or university and the League of Nations

Association (LNA), then its successor the American Association for the United Nations (AAUN) or their college affiliate the Collegiate Council for the United Nations (CCUN). LNA / AAUN / CCUN also sponsored other conferences. 1967 was the last conference with the CCUN sponsorship. Committee of International Relations and UN Affairs (CIRUNA) seems to have been involved for a few years after that. On April 30, 1968 papers were signed that created the nonprofit National Collegiate Conference Association (NCCA) governing body to oversee the National Model United Nations (NMUN) conferences. In 2017 the decision was made to retire the NCCA name and operate both the conferences and the governing body under the NMUN name.

Notes:

School numbers prior to 1969 are fairly accurate but 1946-49, 1951, 1953-64, and 1966 are estimates from news coverage. Student numbers prior to 1969 are generally from news coverage.

Prior to 1961, SGs were from the host college / university.

Work continues on finding the names of the missing Continuation Committee / Board Members.

We found references that state we started in 1923 or 1925. However, we've only been able to trace it back to 1927, which matches the timeframe when they were listing conference numbers.

A few sources incorrectly indicate that Harvard was involved in our early years as a Model League of Nations. This was probably a misstatement of their and Yale's involvement with us in the 1960s as we transitioned the conference to New York City. Harvard was involved in the New England (not the Middle Atlantic) Model Assembly of the League of Nations. They held their first conference in 1928 and disbanded around 1938.

"Even before Germany launched its invasion of Poland on September 1, 1939, the popularity of Model League of Nations had waned considerably throughout the United States. Of the nine regional Model Assembly of the League of Nations conferences, mostly sponsored by the League of Nations Association (LNA), only the Middle Atlantic Model League of Nations continued to hold annual conferences after 1938."

(University of Central Arkansas, A History of Model League of Nations in the United States, p. 20.)

"Oscar A. DeLima, Executive Vice-President of the American Association for the United Nations, noted that the Middle Atlantic Model United Nations is the parent of all other Model Assemblies."

(Model United Nations General Assembly 25th Session - 1952 25th Anniversary Conference Program, p. 7.)

More research is needed on the following, but there were international assemblies in Japan, Europe, and the United States that discussed world problems in the 1920s.

In Europe, affiliated with their campus League of Nations Union:

- Oxford University in England hosted their first International Assembly in November 1921.
- Edinburgh University in Scotland hosted their first one in 1922.

In the United States:

- The Intercollegiate Cosmopolitan Club of the City of New York's International Student Assembly discussions may have been the first to be intercollegiate. Students from New York universities and professional schools representing 70 nations participated as early as the 1922-1923 academic year.

- Harvard held their first International Assembly in January 1923.
